Return to Jobs Until Labor Board Can Give Re-Hearing, Harding Urges Leader

REBUKES CRITICS

Treats With "Contempt" Assertion Farmers and Labor Condemns His Administration

(By the Associated Press.)

Washington, July 26.—President Harding, in a telegram sent today to J. C. Dean, chairman of the railway employees' publicity association, Chattanooga, Tenn., "invited" Dean to urge striking railway workers to accept the decision of the Railroad Labor Board and return to work "until you and I, and everyone else interested in American welfare, may join in asking the Railroad Labor Board to give a re-hearing on any question concerning which there is reasonable doubt about the correctness of the justice of the decision made."

The President's message was in reply to a telegram he received last Sunday from Dean in which it was said that "to attempt to operate mines and railroads by military force or to attempt to draft men into mining or railroad service would be an attempt to establish involuntary servitude." President Harding in his telegram said he was convinced Dean's "attempted appeal to American prejudice will fall upon deaf ears."

The President told Dean that if he were the "believer in peace and harmony and the reign of justice which you would have believed, I invite you now to pass on the failure of the mine workers to accept the awards of an able and impartial commission in determining the merits of the dispute between coal miners and coal operators."

The assertion of Dean that "the American farmers and labor have come to realize the hostile attitude of the G. O. P.," Mr. Harding said he would treat with "contempt."

The President's telegram, dated July 25, was in part as follows:

"Since you speak as chairman of the Railway Employees Publicity Association and since it is exceedingly important that the American people know precisely the questions at issue in the present railway and coal strikes, I am more than glad to answer your telegram, though I can only treat your politically partisan references with that contempt which is felt by every good citizen in the hour of deep public concern. Happily for the American people, everything done and everything said by government authority relating to the two strikes is a matter of record, and cannot in any way be distorted. There is no dispute about the loyal American citizenship of the men on strike, nor will anyone question that many of them gave everything that men can give for the service of this country in the World War. Nor is it disputed that the men on strike are exercising their constitutional and lawful rights, under existing statutes, in declining to work under the terms decided by the Railroad Labor Board or tendered to the workers by the mine operators of the country. No law of readjustment and to relieve labor from the hardships of unemployment, I know your attempted appeal to American prejudice will fall upon deaf ears. It is ungrateful and it is untruthful. If you are the believer in peace and harmony and the reign of justice, which you would have believed, I invite you now to pass judgment on the failure of the mine workers to accept the awards of an able and impartial commission in determining the merits of the dispute between coal miners and coal operators, and I invite you to urge the striking railway workmen to accept the decision of the Railroad Labor Board, acting under authority of the law, which must be supreme, and return to work under that decision, until you and I, and everyone else interested in American welfare, may join in asking the Railroad Labor Board to give a re-hearing on any question concerning which there is reasonable doubt about the correctness or the justice of the decision made."

Yesterday's Developments In Industrial Situation

RAILROAD STRIKE

B. M. Jewell, head of the striking railway shopmen, international presidents of the shop crafts, Timothy Healy, president of the firemen and oilers' union, and A. O. Wharton, labor group member of the Railroad Labor Board, went to Washington to see President Harding. Railroad executives issued a statement asserting that freight was being moved as offered without congestion and that passenger traffic was normal.

President Harding conferred with W. W. Atterbury, vice president of the Pennsylvania system, and Secretary Hoover regarding the shopmen's strike.

The Baltimore & Ohio railroad made a written proposal to its shopmen to end the strike on its lines and sent a copy to President Harding.

COAL STRIKE

President Harding set in motion the federal fuel control organization with the selection of a central coal distribution committee.

Governor McCray of Indiana announced a proposed arrangement to take over and operate sufficient mines for Indiana's necessities.

Executive Board, District 21, United Mine Workers—Oklahoma, Arkansas and Texas—passed a resolution calling on engineers, firemen and pumpmen who had been permitted to work since the strike began.

Missouri operators, after a conference with Governor Hyde, announced cooperation in opening mines had been assured.

Assurance was given that the Kansas industrial court will cooperate with the Southwestern Coal Operators' association in advancing its resolution to reopen mines in Southwest.

Frank Farrington, president of the Illinois miners, called state convention for August 3 to act on peace plans, leaders on both sides predicting a settlement within two weeks.

in the railway shopmen's strike still maintained the walk-out was virtually 100 per cent.

The statement issued by the western presidents' committee on public relations of the Association of Railway Executives, says car loadings exceed those of a year ago except on roads especially affected by the coal strike.

PUT SELF-CONSIDERATION ASIDE, MR. M'CHORD URGES

Washington, July 26.—Only to the extent that "self interest is subordinated to the public weal may this country take heart" for a solution of the industrial problems and conflicts that beset its progress, the convention time Chairman M'Chord of the Interstate Commerce Commission declared in a message to be read today before the convention of the National Hay association at Cedar Point, Ohio.

"The disposition both of the war spirit, or which came as a result of the war, to act for one's self regardless of others, to receive much and give little, to extract the best dollar's profit, is still apparent," Chairman M'Chord added.

"The strikes of labor men in our country are but symptoms of this condition. Controversies between employers and employees can be adjusted on equitable terms if, putting self-considerations aside, both meet in that spirit of whole-hearted understanding and cooperation in which each is willing to concede something for the benefit of all."

"If agreements cannot be reached by negotiations, the public whose vital interests are at stake, has the paramount right to expect and require that in all things both sides shall bow to the constituted authority to which such matters are committed for adjustment."

"There is, I regret to note, a deplorable manifestation of a contemptuous disregard of law and order by the parties to such controversies. These things must not be. Capital shall not rule and labor shall not control for themselves alone."

Disorders in Chicago.

Chicago, July 26.—Rail strikers were dispersed today by the police responding to a call after Paul Misko, a non union mechanic employed at the Burnside railroad shops, had been assaulted in a melee during which several shots were fired.

"You've got to quit work," Misko was told when stopped by the strikers while on his way to work, according to police report. He defied the strikers, and the fight followed, Misko being severely beaten.

A riot call was sent in by passersby, and when the strikers refused to disperse at the order of the police, they were clubbed. Joseph Gendi, a striker, was arrested as the leader. Disorders also were reported at Creston, Iowa, where Kay Blodgett and George McCloud, doing picket duty for striking shopmen of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad were shot by a guard. Blodgett was removed to a hospital and was said to be in a critical condition.

Hornell Injunction in Effect.

Hornell, July 26.—The federal injunction granted by Judge Hazel in Buffalo yesterday restraining the 1,200 members of the Federated shop crafts in Hornell and about half that number in Salamanca from molesting employees or in any way interfering with the operation of the Erie shops in those cities, was served this afternoon by Deputy United States Marshal Moran of Rochester. The injunction, which is temporary, is returnable in Buffalo on August 4 and practically prohibits all picketing.

Striking shopmen at a mass meeting this afternoon passed a resolution calling upon Mayor Robbins to immediately order the withdrawal of state constabulary from the city.

Marine Workers Favor Strike.

Detroit, July 26.—Virtually a 100 per cent. vote in favor of a strike has been cast by members of the marine firemen, oilers, water tenders and coal passers' union of the Great Lakes and the sailors' union of the Great Lakes, who have deposited their ballots at the district office of the organizations here. It was announced late today. Tabulation of 583 votes from both unions has been made and of these 539 favored the walk-out as the result of a wage controversy, it was said.

FUEL CONTROL SET IN MOTION

President Selects Central Distribution Committee Headed by Secretary Hoover

STATES COOPERATE

Governors Asked to Establish Emergency Organizations Under Administration's Plan

(By the Associated Press.)

Washington, July 26.—President Harding tonight set in motion the federal emergency fuel control organization with the selection of a central coal distribution committee of government officials under the chairmanship of Secretary Hoover.

The commerce secretary, at the request of the President, immediately wired the governors of the various states asking them to set up emergency state organizations as the first step toward decentralizing the organization for equitable distribution and maintenance of fair prices for coal under the administration's plan.

"Under this plan," Mr. Hoover said, "the distribution for railway use will be directed from Washington but, with the possible exception of a few state public utilities, the responsibility for all other distribution will rest upon organizations set up under state control."

Co-operation of state organizations was asked by Interstate Commerce Commissioner Atchison, who telegraphed the several transportation regulatory bodies of the states east of the Mississippi requesting them to act as representatives of the commission in facilitating operation of the emergency service orders giving priority to the shipments of coal and necessities.

The federal coal distribution committee, selected by the President, consists of Attorney General Daugherty, Secretaries Fall and Hoover, and Commissioner Atchison, or other representative, under the temporary chairmanship of the commerce secretary.

A fifth member is to be added to the committee later, said Mr. Hoover, who will undertake the administrative direction, while the ultimate character of the organization "must depend upon the situation."

Intend to Protect Public.

New York, July 26.—The committee from New York state which went to Washington to offer the government its aid in maintaining food and fuel distribution during the rail strike today expressed complete satisfaction with the results of its mission.

"We are impressed with a belief that the authorities at Washington intend to protect the public interests in every possible way," said William A. Prendergast, chairman of the state public service commission and head of the emergency committee appointed at the suggestion of Governor Miller.

"Secretary Hoover impressed upon us the advisability of learning immediately the exact situation in respect to coal supplies held by the different utilities. This suggestion has been anticipated because from the beginning of the coal strike the commissions have been constantly informed in regard to this subject and have been added materially in this work by the organizations representing the different utility companies."

Urges Illinois Miners Return.

Springfield, Ill., July 26.—Immediate resumption of work in Illinois coal mines at the old wage scale pending wage conferences in the governor's office concluding a separate Illinois agreement was suggested in a telegram sent by Acting Governor Sterling to President Farrington of the Illinois mine workers.

"Submitting to a settlement in such conference," the message said, "submit the disputed conditions and demands to arbitration by three miners, three operators and three impartial persons appointed by the governor representing the consuming and suffering public, the findings of this tribunal to be effective for such periods as may be agreed by both sides to the controversy."

LEWIS IN PENNSYLVANIA.

Philadelphia, Pa., July 26.—John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, met the district presidents of the anthracite and bituminous coal fields of Pennsylvania here today to consider matters affecting the 31,000 idle mine workers in the state. It was stated by a member of the conference that consideration would be given to the action of Governor Sproul in sending troops into the soft coal fields.

Louisville, July 26.—Dealers in western Kentucky coal reported today the mine price had dropped $2 from $9 and $10 a ton Monday.

JAMES ROTHSCCHILD SUED FOR $500,000

French Girl Alleges She Came Here Last Spring on His Promise to Marry Her

New York, July 26.—James Rothschild, son of Baron Henri D. Rothschild, head of the Rothschild family of France, was sued today for $500,000 by Marie Porquet, a French girl, who alleged she came here last spring upon his promise to marry her and that he has since refused to fix a date for the marriage.

A statement issued by Rothschild's counsel, former State Senator Edgar T. Brackett, declared the Frenchman "denies most strenuously the statements of the plaintiff and says that she claims that he ever promised or contemplated marrying her is absurd and without the slightest foundation."

The statement said Rothschild is now in Paris. The papers filed today showed the complaint was served on him here at 375 Park avenue, June 27.

In her complaint Miss Porquet alleges the Baron promised her in France last April that he would wed her "within a reasonable time" if she would come to the United States. She agreed to become his wife and arrived here about May 15, the papers said. She declared the Baron had refused to agree on any date for the marriage, "though more than a reasonable time has elapsed since the arrival of the plaintiff."

Answering the complaint, Baron D. Rothschild's attorneys deny "upon information and belief" that their client proposed to Miss Porquet in France or that she came here under such a promise.

"This is one of those cases where a man is confronted with the alternative of either paying a large sum of money or fighting out the issue regardless of publicity," said the statement by Mr. Brackett.

"Upon the trial, the facts of the case and the history of the individual will, in our opinion, leave little doubt as to the merits of the action. Our client, having the utmost confidence in the integrity of his position, stands ready to have the entire matter laid before an American court and jury."

SPORTSMAN'S WIFE SHOOT HER SISTER

Says Message From Her Dead Father Prompted Her to Commit the Act

New York, July 26.—A message from her dead father, urging her to "make an end of all this business," prompted Mrs. Minnie Reisler, wife of "John the barber," Reisler, widely known shooting man, to shoot her sister, Bertha Katz, police quoted her as saying today after she had been locked up with her two sons and a brother on homicide charges.

Miss Katz was shot in her home early today. Detectives indicated they believe Mrs. Reisler's statement, although Mrs. Katz, in a deathbed statement, told them that her brother, a son of Mrs. Reisler, fired the shot which killed her. Morris and George Reisler and Max Katz were held with Mrs. Reisler.

An all-day search failed to bring "John the barber," whose alleged love affair with Miss Katz was declared by Mrs. Reisler to have been the cause of the shooting into the hands of the police. The last time they saw him, they said, was last night when he went to a Brooklyn police station and asked protection for the Katz girl.

GIRL ATTEMPTS SUICIDE WHEN "HE" PASSED HER BY

New York, July 26.—"He saw me and passed me by—"

These words, written in a feminine hand on the fly-leaf of a book by a popular American romanticist, furnish the police their only clue to the motive which caused Miss Schib, 19-year-old girl, to attempt suicide in Morningside park today.

The unconscious girl, her lips burned and discolored by the iodine she had drunk, was found in the park by mothers who had taken their children there to play.

She was taken to Knickerbocker hospital, where her recovery was held doubtful.

BRITISH DELEGATION HEAD OPTIMISTIC OVER HAGUE

London, July 26.—Sir Philip Lloyd-Greame, head of the British delegation at The Hague conference, reporting on the work of the day, expressed the opinion that it had made a long step forward on the path toward a Russian settlement. The next and final step, he added, rested with the Russian government. He denied that the procedure of the conference was in any way forced upon one party by the others and declared that the only hope of restoring Russia's industry in bringing back into it is many of those who built it up as possible.

SUMMER RESORTS—AND LIQUOR.

Syracuse, July 26.—Prohibition enforcement agents in the Syracuse district today started a drive against summer resorts and hot weather gathering places, where, according to complaints to William Brennan, Federal agent in charge of enforcement in this district, whiskey and home brew are being sold. For several weeks agents have been visiting resorts complained of, and several arrests have been made. Mr. Brennan asserted that other illicit dealers shifted their operations from the cities and villages to resorts.

CAN'T ALTER THREE-MILE LIMIT, BRITISH ATTITUDE

London, July 26.—With reference to the note from the Washington government asking cooperation in the suppression of liquor running into the United States through Bermuda and the Bahamas, it was understood the British government has informed Washington that the three-mile limit cannot be altered. Great Britain takes the position that she is unable to make a precedent allowing the seizure of such vessels outside that limit.

The government, however, is consulting with the naval government concerned with respect to clearance papers, change of register and other points.

BISHOP GRIMES IS DEAD IN SYRACUSE

End Follows Long Period of Illness; Made Priest at Albany in 1882

Syracuse, July 26.—Bishop John Grimes of the Catholic diocese of Syracuse, died at 10:10 o'clock tonight after a long period of illness, which had been critical for the last ten days.

At various times since 1913, Bishop Grimes had suffered periodical attacks of a long-standing chronic trouble which ordinarily ran about six weeks before he was able to be out again. He was stricken last month and was compelled to cancel all official engagements, including confirmations in various parishes.

It was believed his health was improving and he requested to be taken for an automobile ride. On his return he suffered a chill and the attending physicians believed a collapse was impending. Their fears were intensified daily and Dr. Warfield T. Longcope, professor of medicine, Columbia university, was asked to come here in consultation with the Syracuse physicians.

Bishop Grimes was born in County Limerick, Ireland, December 18, 1852, of a family prominent in church affairs. He finished his college course with honors at the age of 18 and came to once to America. He was ordained a priest at Albany, February 10, 1882, and immediately afterward assigned as an assistant to St. Mary's church, Syracuse, now The Cathedral. He was given his first pastorate at Whitesboro in 1887 and two years later was returned to St. Mary's as pastor upon the death of Father O'Hara. In 1904 he was made a member of the papal household with the rank of monsignor and on May 14, 1906, was consecrated coadjutor to Bishop Ludden. On August 6, 1912, Bishop Grimes succeeded to the bishopric on the death of Bishop Ludden.

DRIFT FOUR DAYS ON LAKE ONTARIO

Three Men Land Safely, But Exhausted After Sailboat Is Disabled

Niagara Falls, July 26.—Three men who had drifted in a small boat on Lake Ontario from Saturday afternoon until this morning lapped exhausted today 12 miles east of Fort Niagara.

The men are Captain L. S. Spooner of Portland, Ore., Olympic team captain and assistant instructor in military tactics at the University of Pennsylvania; Captain J. Stiff of Toronto, and an officer named Walker of Montreal. They started out early Saturday afternoon for a day's sail, carrying a lunch with them.

The sailboat was well out into the lake when a storm shattered the mast. The auxiliary engine refused to work. There was a tiny dory aboard the sailboat, but it was for it.

Finally Captain Spooner fashioned a pair of oars from the remnants of the broken mast. With these the men took turns rowing the dory and towing the sailboat. After many hours they came to shore.

Except for the exhaustion, the men suffered no ill effects from their exposure. The lunch they carried, rationed carefully, served them as food for the three days.

PRINTING COUNCIL PROTESTS STATE TROOPERS IN BUFFALO

Glens Falls, July 26.—A resolution protesting to Governor Miller the sending of state troopers into Buffalo, or any city of the state, unless they are requested by the mayor, or other municipal officials, was adopted today at the convention of Allied Printing Trades Council, in session here.

The resolution also requests the governor to conduct a raiding in the controversy which has arisen as a result of the troopers being sent to Buffalo to quell disorders during the trolley strike there.

A charge that the sending of troopers without the request of city officials to any municipality is a violation of law and the principle of home rule also is embodied in the resolution.

GOVERNOR LIVED UP TO HIS RULE

But It Cost Him "Something Over $8,000" to Carry Out Inaugural Precept

MILLER—ECONOMY

Executive Expenses Last Year Were Lowest in Ten, Governor Declares

Albany, July 26.—It cost Governor Miller "something over $8,000" to live up to a rule against deficiency appropriations for state departments which he established at the outset of his administration.

Rather than violate the precept which he set forth in his inaugural address that there must be economy in state finances and no more deficiency items, the governor personally paid from his private purse the sum by which the executive department exceeded its appropriation.

Revelation of this probably unparalleled procedure in state history was made by the governor himself tonight in a statement intended to reply to charges by Robert Moses, secretary of the New York State association, that the governor's own department had exceeded its budgetary allotment.

The governor's explanation also brought to light the fact that a "former secretary did incur bills for certain purposes in excess of the appropriations for those purposes." The governor's former secretary was W. Ward Smith, who resigned at the end of the last legislative session to enter private business.

Accused of Animus.

Mr. Moses, who brought the charge, is accused of animus in the governor's statement, which also denies that the deficiencies incurred were to be made up from a lump sum appropriation next year.

"I did that," said the governor, referring to his payment of deficiency, "because I had set my face against deficiency appropriations and I had to observe the rule that I had established, if I expected others to do so. I could not violate it myself and then make explanations. The people who accomplish things in this world are usually those who perform instead of explain."

Performance, rather than explanation, cost the governor a sum equal to a greater part of his first year's salary as chief executive. The salary is $10,000.

Some "trifling" bills left over from the preceding administration, Alfred E. Smith also were paid by the governor, he declared in his statement.

The governor also declared that the expenses of the executive department had been less during the fiscal year closed June 30 last than for any period the last ten years except one.

TARIFF OPPONENTS LOSE FIRST FIGHT

Senate Rejects Lenroot Amendment to Provide 60 Pct. Maximum on Carpet Wools

Washington, July 26.—Republican senators opposing tariff rates proposed on low grades of wool today in the first phase of their fight to limit these rates to an equivalent ad valorem of 60 per cent.

The senate, by a vote of 43 to 22, rejected an amendment by Senator Lenroot of Wisconsin to provide for a maximum of 60 per cent. in the tariff on carpet wools.

Eight Republicans supported the "no vote" proposal and seven Democrats voted against it. The Republicans supporting were Borah of Idaho, Cullum and Rayburn of Iowa, Kellogg and Nelson of Minnesota, Lenroot of Wisconsin, McCormick of Illinois and Wadsworth of New York. The Democrats opposing were Ashurst of Arizona, Broussard and Ransdell of Louisiana, Jones of New Mexico, Kendrick of Wyoming, Sheppard of Texas, and Walsh of Montana.

NEWBURGH OFFICIAL SUSPENDS HIMSELF

Asks Investigation of Charge He Receives $6000 Commission on Land Sale

Newburgh, July 26.—Major W. J. McKay, city manager here, today suspended himself pending investigation of charges that he was to receive $6,000 commission on the sale of land for a high school site.

The charge was brought by Peter Wall, a newspaper carrier, who is a frequent complainant before the city council. While the charge was not seriously entertained by the members of the council, who sought to dismiss it with a smile, Major McKay insisted on a public investigation, meanwhile suspending himself.

The city manager exercises no control over schools and would not in any way represent the city in a sale of land.

When Major McKay assumed office his first official act was to reduce his own salary from $5,000 to $2,500 a year.

BABE RUTH GETS TWO HOMERS.
Yankees Bat Trio of Brown Pitchers for 11 to 6 Victory.

St. Louis, July 26.—Staging rallies in the eighth and ninth innings, in which they scored eight runs, the New York Yankees battled a trio of local pitchers hard and evened the series by defeating the Browns, 11 to 6, today. "Babe" Ruth knocked out his 16th and 17th home runs of the season.

The game was a pitchers' battle until the seventh inning when the locals battled Hoyt out of the box and scored five runs. Wright held the visitors to five hits until he was taken out for a pinch hitter in the seventh.

Knocks First Pitched Ball in Ninth and Gives Washington 3-4 Win.

Detroit, July 26.—Washington beat Detroit this afternoon, 5 to 4, when Gharrity hit a home run off the first ball Oleson pitched to him in the ninth.

Gharrity was substituted for Pichich, who was benched by Umpire Guthrie for disputing a decision on a bunt that rolled along the foul line and on which Heilmann scored from third with the tying run in the eighth. Shanks also was benched from the

STAMFORD SERIES EVEN

Drive in Eight Runs, Enabling Them to Take Game—Same Teams Here Today to Play Rubber—Carroll Sprains Ankle—Many Hits.

The hard hitting Holy Cross team which is representing Stamford on the ball diamond this season got a victory from the Oneonta outfit yesterday at Stamford, making the series thus far played even at 2 all. On this afternoon the same two clubs will scrap it out for the seventh game of the controversy—and it will be some battle. Errors were few and hits plentiful on the part of both teams. The visitors garnering 14 safe clouts and the guests of the summer resort coming away with an even dozen to their credit, but the Delaware county aggregation made their work for them to great advantage. Simendinger got four safe cracks at the sphere in as many times that he faced Thomas and drove in five runs thereby. The Oneonta tribe's hits came when there was little to be gained thereby, mostly when the socks were devoid of human tonnage. Another factor which contributed considerably to the defeat was the constant doing of the right thing at the wrong time and also the fact that the "breaks" went the wrong way.

Carroll, the star of Holy Cross along the hurling mound, was going along very effectively, having permitted but one hit in the three innings he twirled when he had the misfortune to sprain his ankle. He was wearing a new pair of shoes and, as his others were worn out, he was playing without breaking them in properly. While off first base he turned sharply in an attempt to get back without being tagged out, the sharp spikes catching in the dirt and holding the foot fast, causing the sprain as his body pulled on the joint. He showed plenty of grit, hobbling back to the sack on his right foot. Time was immediately called and a doctor gave him temporarily attention at the field, soon after removing him to his quarters. It is stated that the accident will deprive Stamford of his services for five or six weeks. This will be a bad blow for the team as he is their twirling ace.

The Mountaineers started off in the very first. Dugan singled through the box into center, being sacrificed to second. Simendinger also got a safe wallop at the plate. Dugan scoring from second on the play.

They put the game on ice and locked the door of the refrigerator in the third by a quartette of tallies. Carroll got a single across short into center, Kopf running in his stead after the accident. Dugan got a sure thing hit to right, putting Kopf on the second. Roche bunted in front of the plate for an attempted sacrifice, but Sinny elected to retire Kopf at third, for which move he has plenty of time, but his peg was to one side and all hands were safe. Kopf scored on a wild pitch. Two on, none down and Simendinger up. He got his second hit scoring the other two, and himself taking second on the throw in. Reid made a great try at the fly off his shoe strings, but couldn't quite make it. Doherty cut the ozone thrice and sat down, but Flynn had caught the hitting bug and showed "S" to third. Kopf, at his turn at the bat, hit to Bridwell who got Flynn, but Simendinger got across the pentagon. Martin grounded, finishing the frame.

Oneonta waited until the sixth for the breaking of their string of doughnuts. Hatch singled to right and Hermann duplicated to left. Alexander hit to third, Hatch going to third. Farrell hit to Flynn who juggled the pill. Hatch scoring and Alex moving to second base. Bridwell got the only base on balls Burke granted. Carroll had previously walked one man; Thomas passing none. Sinstack lifted the ball high in the air, being out into Dugan's hands, which out scored Alexander for the second run. Thomas whisked.

The final run came in the ninth. After Roche had made a wonderful catch of Thomas' foul fly, Reid hit to Roche who threw to the stands in his effort to get the runner, who was permitted to reach second on a ground rule. Purcell hit a short single to right, Reid going to the hot corner. Hatch flew to center, Hermann touched the horseshoe to left out of reach of the fielders, Reid scoring. Dugan got under Alexander's effort, ending the game.

Hermann nearly sent Burke to the hospital in the fourth when he hit a sizzling liner directly at the curve thrower, but the latter managed to hang on to it.

Stamford here this afternoon at 3:30.

WALTON ALL THE WAY

Farrell's Pets Wallop Two Sidney
Twinklers and Take Contest, 8 to 3
—Sidney Unable to Hit Opportunity.

Sidney, July 26.—Walton bunched their hits to better advantage than did Sidney and as a consequence Jerome Farrell's pets were victorious here today by a 9 to 3 score. Sidney drew some heavy hitting but when bases meant counters, Farrell was like the Rock of Gibraltar and the Sidney attack failed. The game was well played and conspicuously free from fielding blobs.

Walton drew first blood in the third canto. Leddy banged the pellet for a base drive. Brazil hit to Burchell and Leddy was forced out at the middle sack. Sanford drove out a roaring double sacker and Brazil skidded from first all the way around to the plate with the first run of the game. Welsing came through with a single and Sanford crossed the rubber with tally number two. Sall for that inning.

In the next stanza Walton added two more to her total. McDonald worked Burchell for a pass and Black stung. Brennan was out. Rater to Danek and O'Hearn died. Sullivan to Danek. Leddy came across with his second single, a long one, and Kinne, running for McDonald, and Black scored. Sidney got two of their three scores in the same inning. Rater walked and Danek touched Brazil for a single bagger. Hickey's two bagger sent both to the home station.

In the fifth Walton added another chalk mark. Vandewalker, now pitching for Sidney, walked Sanford, who was sacrificed to second by Welsing and went to third on McCullough's single. McCullough stole second and Sanford scored on the throw to the middle basecock. In the seventh the Waltonites made three more. McCullough was out to Hickey. McDonald was hit by a pitched ball. Black went out. Rater to Danek. Brennan singled and Kinne, running for McDonald, scored. O'Hearn reached first safely on Barry's error. Sidney's only misplay, and both he and Brennan scored on Leddy's hit. Walton put their last run over the rubber in the next to the last inning. Sanford singled and pliffed second, proceeding from that bag to third on Welsing's sacrifice fly to Baker. McCullough's one timer brought in the Walton second baseman.

Sidney made a brave rally in their half of the ninth but it availed them but a single counter. Marone, batting for Vandewalker, hit a loftier fly for McCullough garnered. Cannibals punched the horseshoe for a drive good for 90 feet. Barry was out to O'Hearn. Brazil pitched four bad ones to Sullivan and Stearns walloped out a double, scoring Cannon. There were still two on but

DON'T NEGLECT PILES COLAC DRIVES THEM AWAY

Don't put off treatment if you have piles—even though they may not cause much misery. They often at first but temporary you a great deal of trouble at first. If neglected, they may soon become inflamed, ulcerated, bleeding and cause you no end of trouble and pain. The best plan is to get a bottle of COLAC PILE PILLS, the wonderful internal treatment that relieves piles by removing the cause. COLAC, Inc., Glens Falls, N. Y.

BRIEF EDITORIAL MENTION
The public, which is a constant critic of manners of public utility employees, will be interested to know that railway station employees in Cincinnati, turning critics, say that Cincinnati is better managed and controlled than any other city. It does not specify how much better, which detracts to some extent from the value of the statement. However, it is pleasant to know that both the public and the employees of the public are doing better. Good manners are a matter of give and take.

Marilynn Miller, who is to marry Jack Pickford, has devised a new form of publicity. She announces that when she marries she will be content to make all the responses, including the "obey." Time was when such announcement would not have been worth a newspaper line, to say nothing of a headline, but, tempora mutan-tur! "Obey." It is now said, means nothing more than that the wife will be guided by the advice and counsel of her husband, where such advice and counsel seem reasonable. There are those, however, who say that it is letting down the bars pretty low, since "reasonable" might mean only when the husband agrees with wife!

Medical men of Johns Hopkins university, it is stated, have lately been warned against the exploitation of the vitamins idea by means of medicines in a bottle. The way to get 'em, the scientists say, is through a proper selection of foods, including green vegetables and salads, which contain more of the life-giving elements than can be drawn from any bottled product, big or little.

Charles Garland, the young radical who lately gave the bulk of his fortune of a million to the newly-organized American Fund for Public Service, has at least the courage of his convictions. Moreover, by retaining for his family and himself $200,000 he has shown a degree of prudence which in view of the thriftless nature of many promoters of socialist enterprises is most commendable.

The statement made by Hancock that the last is "local issue" did much to defeat him for the presidency, but time has done much to demonstrate the justice of his words.
Even now north and south disagree over the sugar schedule, tobacco producing with tobacco consuming sections over the rate on Sumatras and Havana, Idaho and New England over wool, city and country over the weight on dairy products. It seems a difficult thing to handle, conditions so that a fair degree of justice can be meted out to all.

Appropos of the recent letter of instruction of the War department relative to the reduction of the number of army officers to comply with the terms of the act of June 22, 1922, it is suggested that the directions to discuss with officers who are not above average would have resulted unfavorably in many specific instances.
One of these, it is pointed out, is that of General Grant, who was very far from the head of his class, and in fact was not an average officer in the opinion of desk officers at Washington. But at the end of the war he came out with a record!

Thomas Kennedy, spokesman for the anti-coal miners, flatly refuses the proposal of many of hard coal cities for arbitration except in one direction—and that is upwards.
His one-sided conception of arbitration will not commend itself to the public, which as the summer passes awakens to the conviction that it wants coal and with lessened wages has not the coin wherewith to pay the advance proposed by Kennedy and his associates.

Near Auto Accident.
An Oldsmobile touring car owned and driven by Nicholas Horne of Morris narrowly missed hitting a Ford coupe driven by a traveling salesman whose name could not be learned.
Tuesday evening at about 11:30, near the top of the hill this side of Colliers. In the Horne car were two young couples returning from the dance at Goodspeed pavilion. As the couple approached the top of the hill
the Ford appeared at the summit, and for some unaccountable reason failed to turn out sufficiently for the other car. There was a slight collision in which the left front fender of the Ford was damaged and a headlight smashed on the Oldsmobile. Both drivers stopped immediately and the affair was settled amicably. The driver of the Ford was unfamiliar with the road and was afraid of going over the embankment by turning out too far, Horne surmises.

Uncle Tom's Cabin Coming.
To Be Produced on Wilcox Flats,
August 2.
In many respects John F. Stowe's
"Uncle Tom's Cabin" is the most important of the season's productions.
In the first place it serves to exploit the masterpieces of two of Europe's noted artists, i. e., Ralph Brunt's elaborate painting entitled "The Celestial City" and Hart Verdon's picture of the New Orleans slave mart; and secondly, it has brought back into prominence
the memories of that grand old lady, Harriet Beecher Stowe, and serves to reveal the beautiful lessons really to be learned by careful attention. Second only to the Holy Book does "Uncle Tom's Cabin" rank as a sacred instructor. The public has endorsed it as a moral teacher worthy of the kind's support, while the board of education in many of the large cities has encouraged scholars in witnessing the worthy dramatization of the story that was instrumental in making our country religious, free and happy. Like a poorly composed book, there are many versions of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" now being forced upon the public under embossed coverings, which are detrimental to the greatest degree. They are usually short-lived, for the people of today are not to be hoodwinked as easily as those of not so many years ago. It is a known fact that Mr.
Stowe's story and that it has been unanimously accepted by the press, pulpit and public of America and England. The Stowe revival will be brought to our city Wednesday, August 2.

Comments of the Press.
Third Class Cities Desire Zoning.
A zoning law for third class cities in Pennsylvania is now being strongly advocated. None is more anxious for it than the Harrisburg Telegraph, which says that the enactment of such a statute would be of material and appreciable benefit to cities of that class.
"Third-class cities," says the Telegraph, "are meeting problems every day of serious character that only zoning regulations can solve. There is the matter of traffic congestion, for example, which the Western Society of Engineers finds can be much lessened by the application of zoning to the regulation of the types of business places permitted in crowded districts."
A statement issued by the society of engineers referred to declares that with the zoning system in force different classes of businesses are so located that their necessities can be provided for in a manner which will interfere very little with those engaged in other callings and with private homes.
Wholesale houses, it is claimed, can,
in many instances, be wholly confined to districts where they can be saved from tracks which will not interfere with others. Special traffic, too, will adjust itself to different localities.
Scranton has been provided with a zoning system which it is believed will be tried out in the near future.
Many are wondering whether it will bring material benefit. —[Scranton Republican.

Coal from Abroad.
News that American interests have purchased between 200,000 and 300-000 tons of steam and gas coal in the British market and that the first shipments are due to arrive in New York
early in August may, or may not, influence the striking miners of this country to go back to work. Seven big freighters have already been engaged to transport the coal to this country and with idle ships in many of our own ports there would seem to be little doubt that great quantities could be brought here in a crisis. Shorter hauls than across the Atlantic are possible.
At present prices, dealers point out,
it is profitable to import the British product. And doubt as to what prices may be a few weeks from now gives it an element of speculation. While 300,000 tons is a mere drop in the bucket when future needs are taken into consideration, it is cheering to know that coal may be had even when our own available supply is exhausted.
There will be coal next winter. The government will see to that. But the price and the inconvenience, not to mention the hardships of the poor,
make a mine war truly imperative. — [Watertown Standard.

A Triumph of Reason.
The forty years' dispute between Chile and Peru over the provinces of Tacna and Arica seems in the fair way of adjustment in a 400-word protocol adopted after a 10-weeks' conference at Washington. It is a notable triumph for the principle of talking it over and reasoning it out. For four decades the issue has menaced the peace and irritated the relations of South America. It was carried to the league of nations, but failed of adjustment, largely because the league hesitated to intervene in an American dispute. —[Pittsburgh Dispatch.

What Has Been Saved.
Senator McCormick's calculation that the people of the United States have been saved $7,000,000,000 since the advent of the Republican administration is not far wrong. The national debt have been reduced $1,000,000,- 000 approximately, by virtue of wise and businesslike administration of the department of the treasury. This has had its effect on the credit of the nation and the condition of the money market, which have cooperated to increase the value of Liberty bonds by $2,000,000,000. —[Carbondale Leader.

World's Wheat Crop.
The Department of Agriculture estimates the world's wheat harvest of 1922 at 2,753,386,000 bushels, against 2,724,506,000 bushels last year and an average of 2,557,577,000 bushels for the years 1909 to 1913. These figures indicate that in spite of the talk of a drift cityward from the farms there are still some pretty active chaps
on the land. —[Carbondale Leader.

The Passport Extortion.
Members of the Chamber of Commerce have done well to enter their protest against the continued retention of the $10 passport fee which was adopted as a war measure, but which is now a hindrance to travel and which works an injury to American business men. The effect of this has been to cause the European governments to make similar increases in their passport fees, and the consequence has been heavy and unfair expense to all Americans who go abroad either for business or pleasure. —[Philadelphia Inquirer.

NEW GAMES VS. OLDER SORTS
Forward and Honor Wheat and New Rye Variety Ready for General Use First Time This Year.
Ithaca, July 26.—Two new varieties of wheat and one of rye may be had by New York farmers for fall planting, according to a statement given out today by the plant breeders at the State Agricultural college here.
Forward is a red kernelled white chaff wheat that is offered in commercial quantities for the first time this year. It has rather stiff straw, grows taller than ordinary wheat and has proved in long continued tests under the direction of the college to be one of the best yielders developed by the cereal breeders of this state,
the specialists say.
For the eastern sections of the state, Dawson's golden chaff, now known as honor wheat, is especially recommended.
Develop New Rye.
As a result of tests to develop new varieties of rye still being carried on both here and in Hudson valley counties, one sort, as yet unnamed, is now available in limited quantities. Although the college does not guarantee it to be superior to Rosen rye, it probably yields as much as that variety and at least 50 per cent. more than common varieties now in use.
The new rye, apparently of Siberian origin, came from Germany to the college in 1914. It has proved superior to a large number of other varieties each year in competitive tests, the average yield having been 35.2 bushels to the acre. Last year it yielded slightly more than Rosen
rye.
Growers who have been co-operating with the college to develop and test these new sorts of wheat and rye this year have some seed available for distribution. Their names and addresses are on file at the department of plant breeding, State college of Agriculture.

WHY "KALO" STORAGE BATTERIES ARE SUPERIOR
THE QUESTION
How can Oneonta Storage Battery Corporation prove that "KALO" Batteries are superior to any other battery of the pasted lead type?
THE ANSWER
"KALO" is made up of lead plates—like other batteries.
"KALO" uses separators between plates—like other batteries.
"KALO" is assembled in a box—like other batteries.
BUT
"KALO" Does Not Use the Same Fluid That Other
Batteries Use
"KALO" USES "HOBBS ELECTROLYTE"
AND THEREIN LIES ITS SUPERIORITY
"Hobbs Electrolyte" unlike the fluid used in other batteries, is free of the destructive sulphating elements, and the unnecessary chemical action that causes undue heat, which not only breaks down the plates and separators but causes the ordinary battery to consume one-third more current from the charging source to keep it in ordinary health.
"HOBBS ELECTROLYTE" IS THE VITAL ELEMENT OF THE "KALO" BATTERY
AND WE CLAIM AND CAN PROVE A MINIMUM SUPERIORITY OF 33 PER CENT
OVER ANY OTHER BATTERY OF THE LEAD PASTED TYPE—AND 99 PER CENT OF THE BATTERIES NOW ON THE MARKET BELONG TO THIS TYPE.

LOCAL MENTION

—Stamford versus Oneonta Giants at Neahwa park this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

—The prayer service at the First Methodist church will be held at 7 o'clock this evening to enable those who so desire to attend the Chautauqua.

—Henry D. McLaury contemplates running in the primaries in opposition to Sheldon H. Close, who has been endorsed by the county organization, for the Republican nomination for surrogate and his nomination petitions are now being circulated.

—A meeting of the Rebekahs Past Noble Grand's association, held at Cherry Valley yesterday. Dinner was served at 1:30 p. m. There was a large attendance from all over the county. Those from Oneonta were: Mrs. Marcia Muller, Mrs. Alice Bookhout, Mrs. Amy Baffle, Mrs. Nellie Van Deusen, Mrs. Cora Stitts, Mrs. Gertrude Terry and Mrs. Gertrude Phelps.

PROVING FRIENDS INDEED

Dozens of children Tenement Dwellers Will Have Real Vacation Through Efforts of Rotary Club and Kindness of Neighboring Residents — Rotarians to Hear Harrison.

Dozens of children will enjoy relief from the sweltering slums of New York City this week of August 15 to 23, because of the generosity being shown by residents of this vicinity who are offering to entertain the boys and girls under 12 years of age to be brought here for their first vacation in the country by the New York Tribune Fresh Air fund through the efforts of the Rotary club of Oneonta. First reports of those who will act as hosts for the big city's "kiddies" will be made this noon at the regular luncheon of the Rotary club. An address by Senator "Pat" Harrison, who will be here to address the final Chautauqua session tonight, will be another feature of the club's meeting.

An unlimited number of children can be sent from New York for their vacation in this vicinity. The only limit will be that placed by the number who respond to the appeal and open their hearts and homes for the youngsters for two weeks. Those desiring to entertain children who have not yet given their names to members of the Rotary club, are urged to get in touch with the committee chairman, Everett Hicks, at the Chamber of Commerce offices by letter or by telephoning 826.

Giants Again Oppose Stamford.

The sweetest words of tongue or pen are "The Stamford team is here again." Perhaps that isn't literally true but it is certain that those words are exceedingly sweet to the ears of Oneonta baseball fans. The battles here between the Mountaineers and the Giants have always been of great excitement. The series of three victories apiece today's game will have an added interest for the many who will journey to Neahwa park. The Giants received a rather severe lacing at the summer resort yesterday and have no desire to have today's struggle end similarly. On the other hand the Holy Cross athletes, keyed up with the wine of success, will make valiant efforts to annex the victory and get the edge on Oneonta in the series.

When Shall Baseball Games Start?

There will be a meeting of the directors of the Community Athletic association at 8 o'clock on Friday evening at the Chamber of Commerce offices at which time the matter of the time for starting games will be discussed. Since it was decided to have the contests start at 2:30 o'clock instead of 4:15, there has been much protest on the part of those who will be unable to see many games if they start at the earlier hour and the directors have thought it best to reconsider the matter. Those wishing to speak on the subject are urged to appear before the directors and state their cases.

Meetings Today.

Prayer meeting at the First Baptist church will begin tonight at 7 o'clock, on account of the Chautauqua.

St. James' guild will hold a special meeting at the rectory at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. A full attendance is requested.

Meeting Fridays.

The O. E. S. Social club will meet Friday afternoon at 71 Ford avenue. The hostesses will be Mrs. Muller, Mrs. Huston and Mrs. Millar. Supper served on Mrs. Muller's lawn. Gentlemen invited.

Special Masonic Communication.

Special Communication Oneonta lodge, No. 486, F. & A. M., will be held at the lodge rooms this morning at 10 o'clock for the purpose of attending the burial of our late brother, Charles Swart. ### MUNICIPALITIES WIN FIGHT Appellate Division of Supreme Court Affirms Right of Cities to Levy Tax on Capital Stock of Banks—Will Probably Be Appealed—Attorney O. C. Becker Assails in Case.

The municipalities of New York state won another victory recently in their fight to maintain the right to levy a one per cent. assessment upon the capital stock surplus and undivided profits of banks and other financial institutions when the appellate division of the supreme court, all members concurring, refused the appeal of the Hanover National Bank of New York city from a final order of the New York county supreme court dismissing the writ of certiorari issued to review an assessment of its capital stock for local and state taxation for the year 1921. The appeal was argued last May and the decision rendered a few days ago. The tax commissioners of New York city, the respondents, were assisted in the fight by a committee of corporation counsels appointed by the Mayor's conference and including Attorney O. C. Becker of this city.

This one per cent. assessment was accepted without question by banks until the passage of the state income tax law which provides that all moneyed capital, other than that invested in state and national banks shares by individual citizens, shall be tax exempt. Federal statutes, however, forbid a greater rate of taxation on national bank shares than is assessed upon other moneyed capital and the banks argued that since other moneyed capital was tax exempt under the provisions of the state income tax law their shares could not be taxed under federal law, be assessed one per cent.

The appellate division contended that the assessment of stock in the local rolls and the imposition of a tax on the book value thereof, had been authorized by the federal statute, as interpreted by the courts, and that the only possible relief which the relator could become entitled to would be to have the tax one per cent. on such book value reduced to conform to the general rate of taxation imposed upon other moneyed capital in the hands of individual citizens employed in competition with the capital of national banks and since the relator had not shown that it is entitled to relief on that theory, or any basis thereof, the order dismissing the writ of certiorari should be affirmed.

The proceedings involve delicate constitutional questions and may go to the supreme court of the United States for final decision. The next move of the banks will probably be to apply to the appellate division for permission to take the case to the Court of Appeals. A decision involves $5,000,000 in the city of New York alone. The case assumed local interest last September when the assessors of the city of Oneonta were served by the Citizens' National bank with a writ of certiorari to have the assessments set aside on the ground that under the federal constitution and laws such taxation is illegal.

ATTRACTING ATTENTION.

"Kalo" Storage Batteries Favorably Mentioned by Motorist.

That "Kalo" storage batteries, the product of the Oneonta Storage Battery corporation, are attracting the attention of the motor world, is attested by the following article which appeared in "Motordom," the official publication of the New York State Automobile association.

"The Oneonta Storage Battery corporation is about to put out a new storage battery known as the 'Kalo.' Tests of this battery have had wonderful results. It has shown 40 per cent. more efficiency with 31 L-3 per cent. less current to charge. This new product is now open for examination for both dealers and users who can secure complete details by writing for a booklet to the company at Oneonta, N. Y. The battery can be used for automobiles, radios, lighting plants and signals. The new factory has an output of 300 batteries a day, and all persons interested are cordially invited to inspect the battery, should they be passing through Oneonta. The factory is on Neahwa place, just off the main street. The new battery will be put on the market October 1st. It is of the same general construction as other batteries, but its advantage lies in the Hobbs electrolyte feature. It can be charged with 33 L-3 per cent. less current than any other battery. After charging, government tests as well as tests made under supervision of the Oneonta Chamber of Commerce, show that the battery will give 40 per cent. more efficiency and in several instances 70 per cent. more than any other make."

New Members Elected.

At a meeting of the directors of the Oneonta Country club held last evening R. H. Brooks who recently became associated with J. O. & G. N. Rowe and William Blackman of Gilbertsville and Frank M. Tyson of Unadilla were elected resident members and W. V. Smith a non-resident member. Misses Ella M. Briggs and Marie Goulet were elected associate members.

"THE COMEDY OF ERRORS"

GREAT SHAKESPEAREAN DRAMA PLAYED AS IT OUGHT TO BE

Grace Halsey Mills and Her Company an Unmixed Delight—Fine Musical Program in Afternoon—Week Closes Today with "Magic Circus" and Address by Senator Harrison.

One to whose voice there comes more perfect gift with each closed cycle of recurrent years, one on whose lips the petals of her speech are turned to ripened fruit before they fall, came with the downfall of the sun with night to our fair city waited about with hills—she and her apt accomplices in art. By what shrewd witchcraft was the doing done, is not for us adventuring to say. But by some waving of the magic wand our souls, transported to another day, and other lands, belike to Ephesus, saw live again a story old as life yet simply told, with such of verity, that in their moments we were moving on laughing with them and with them, loving too, until the falling curtain hid the scene yet left for us a memory which shall be a treasure treasured in the chest of years.

All this is pseudo-Shakespearean for the statement that Grace Halsey Mills appeared on the Oneonta platform of Chautauqua last evening for the first time since this city was favored with these weeks of summer entertainment mixed with profit. An artist with few equals in the interpreting of the plays of the great dramatist, she had surrounded herself with a company of similar mettle with herself, and like her, students of the earlier English stage; and for a play she had chosen "The Comedy of Errors," which if it were to be characterized in the language of the metropolitan press agent of a modern play would be characterized as "one laugh from start to finish." With such a play and with such players, it was no wonder that an audience which came expectant and away delighted, not only that nothing was heard save the highest praise of the interpreters of the one of the greatest comedies in the long list of dramas of Shakespeare.

As is well remembered Miss Mills came first to Oneonta as a member of the Ben Greet company, her work at that time being of such quality as made her a favorite with all who love the plays of the great dramatist. This year her company with which she surrounded herself embraced, among others, such artists as Miss Marian Evensen, lately leading lady for Mantell; Miss Mary Ward Holton last winter support for Jane Cowl in "Smilin' Through"; and Katherine Sayre, like Miss Mills herself once with the Ben Greet players and later a member of the cast included J. Sayre, Crawley, long associated with Sothern and Marlowe; Percy Varum, Edward Forbes, Leslie Palmer, Robert Noble and George Westlake, along with others who in their parts were as good if less conspicuous.

There is no need for praise of the performance, which all expected could be excellent and which was; but a word at least is not amiss regarding the graceful introduction by Miss Mills, who after picturing a world more delightful if there were more of comedy and less of tragedy in every-day life, less of grief and more of humor and fun, more of a sense of beauty and a more tolerant and comprehensive vision, told in brief the story of the play. Her prefatory talk was a delight and was a fine foretaste of the play to come.

The large audience of last evening—probably the largest of the week—would be pleased should the management favor the town with the same company another year.

The Afternoon Concert.

An afternoon of enjoyable musical entertainment was given yesterday by a concert company composed of Miss Claire Brookhurst, contralto soprano; Max Gegan, cellist; and Axel Skjerve, pianist. There was enough variety in the program to make it interesting and the large audience warmed up to a point where it regretted to leave.

Easily the feature of the afternoon was the closing number, "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice," from the opera, "Samson and Delilah" in this number, Miss Brookhurst best displayed her vocal attainments and with the accompanying cello it was indeed a pleasing number to listen to. The artists responded to the insistent encore with Carrie Jacobs' "A Perfect Day," which no doubt was the way most of those in the audience characterized the afternoon's entertainment.

Unusual interest was manifested in the playing of the cello; he is indeed a master of this difficult instrument, and brought out to fine effect the beauties of its tone. His most elaborate number was "Rhapsodie" by Popper, and he responded to an encore with the ever-beautiful "Concert" by Beethoven. His lighter number was "Serenade" by Drigo-Gegana, "Zandara" is Fischer, and "Shepherd Boy" by Henri Rebecq. Miss Brookhurst possesses an excellent contralto voice and the various numbers she had selected gave excellent opportunity to display it. She was perhaps heard more effectively in "Blow, Blow Thou Winter Wind," "I Know a Bank," and others of the more familiar songs.

The finishing touch to the afternoon's enjoyment was furnished by the accompanist, Mr. Skjerve, who is a pianist of rare ability. He won deserved applause in his solo number, Chopin's "Polonaise A Flat Major," and ably supported Miss Brookhurst and Mr. Gegan when these artists held the center of the stage.

Last Day of Summer Chautauqua. Today is the sixth and last day of the summer Chautauqua, and as usual it is planned to make it a red letter day in the annals of a crowded week. There has been large attendance throughout the week, but

THE CHILDREN'S AFTERNOON

Members of Junior Chautauqua Will Present Magic Circus Today—Junior Work This Year on Pretentious Scale.

The "Magic Circus," feature of the Junior Chautauqua this season, will be presented by local kiddies in the big top this afternoon and the boys and children who have been rehearsing faithfully for the past week under the direction of Miss Helen Davies are all on edge with excitement and have so imbued their parents and friends with enthusiasm that the attendance this afternoon is certain to be a record breaker. There is nothing that interests the average child so much as a circus and his satisfaction when the circus is one in which he will participate can easily be imagined.

The wild animals have been made by the children and trained by them and it is said that the menagerie so created and taught is one that would take P. T. Barnum's breath away if he were but alive. We can best describe the array of beasts by quoting from the Chautauqua circular: "There'll be elephants and bears and lions so dread."

And freaks and clowns. That stand on their head. The fat lady, the strong man. Tom Thumb and his bride. The wild man who's so wild. They chain him inside. "To name all the wonders would take most a year. So just wait till the ring-master gets here."

The ring-master will be Mrs. Edna Belle Kuhn, who knows all about circuses and animals and things. Miss Kuhn will come to Oneonta direct from the moon and is reputed to be just full of magic. The Highland Lassies will assist in the program.

The Junior Chautauqua this year has been unusually pretentious. The supervisor, Miss Helen Davies, is kindergarten instructor in the schools of Mt. Vernon and has so captivated the kiddies that they are one and all hoping that she will return next year. During the mornings rehearsals for the circus have been held and in the afternoon games have been played and stories told, the Normal playground and the Wilbur park lawn being used for the play periods. On Saturday the kiddies had a picnic. The children have entered into the zest of things and the week will long be remembered by them. Miss Lulu Hill of this city has assisted Miss Davies with her work and Community house officials have also been generous with their aid.

An interesting feature of the junior work has been the poster contest. Doubtless all have seen the clever and attractive posters in store windows advertising the Magic Circus. Each one of these posters has been made by a local child. A contest has been in progress and this afternoon prizes for the best poster made, will be awarded.

STRIKE BREAKER DROWNS

Jay Alexander, Employed at O. & W. Shops at Norwich, Goes in Swimming in Chenango River and Loses Life.

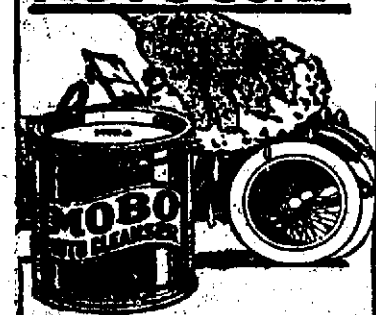

Norwich, July 26.—Jay Alexander, aged 23 years, and understood to have come from the vicinity of Boston, Mass., was accidentally drowned in the Chenango river here this afternoon while in bathing. Alexander was one of the strike breakers employed in the O. & W. shops and this afternoon at 3 o'clock when his shift went off duty, he, with a companion, went down the railroad tracks to a bridge over the river in sight of the shops and they went in bathing in about five feet of water.

His companion, whose name it has been impossible to learn, went in first and swam across the river and while swimming back heard Alexander shouting and discovered that he was in trouble. The companion went to his rescue and attempted to save him but in the struggle Alexander endeavoring to grasp his rescuer tightly, the unfortunate man slipped away. It was stated, and was carried into deeper water. The body was not recovered until an hour later. It was some distance down stream in about 10 feet of water. The body was removed to the Breese undertaking rooms where it awaits word from relatives, if they can be located.

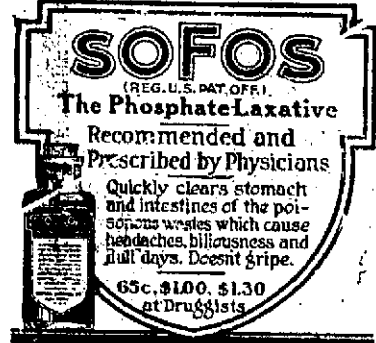

Little is known here about Alexander. He came here with a party of strike breakers on July 16th and has been housed within the buildings of the railroad company. The best information available tonight is that he came from the vicinity of Boston. An effort is being made to locate his relatives.

PESKY BED BUGS

Bedbugs lay an average of seven eggs per day. Under favorable conditions they hatch in five days of which two-thirds are females. They mature to adult size and are capable of laying in four weeks. How many bedbugs would you have in a year if you left one female or egg unmolested for one year?

To rid the pesky bedbug, you readily see how necessary it is to use a powder that will kill the eggs as well as the live ones. F. D. Q. has been demonstrated by the leading Hospitals, Hotels and Railroad Companies that this is the most economical way to stop the quality of the concluding entertainments is such that it is believed that the Chautauqua will go out in blaze of glory.

There will be no morning session, but in the afternoon the children of the Junior Chautauqua, with Miss Edna Belle Kuhn as ringmaster and assisted by the Highland Lassies, will present "The Magic Circus." More extended reference to this entertainment is given elsewhere in this issue.

In the evening there will be an address, as is practically always the case, by a statesman of nation-wide repute. The speaker will be Senator Pat Harrison of Mississippi, who besides being Democratic leader in the United States senate, has the distinction of being the youngest member of that body, being only forty years of age. He is admitted even by his opponents and critics in the senate to be one of the best posted men in the country, and his lecture on "Questions of the Hour" will no doubt be replete with interest. Preceding the lecture there will be a prelude by the Highland Lassies.

1923 Chautauqua Assured.

Robert Hall, president of the Chautauqua, announced last night that 45 of the necessary 50 signers for the 1923 Chautauqua have been secured and it is confident believed that the other seven necessary for the acceptance of the contract by the Redpath company, will be secured this afternoon. Several who have been supporters in the past remain to be seen and it is believed that their names will be added as soon as the paper is presented. There is little or no doubt that the Chautauqua will return. It's worth to the city is incalculable and none who have attended at all regularly this season, would wish to think that it was not to return next summer.

JOHN S. FOX DIES SUDDENLY.

One of Proprietors of Canadago Park at Richfield Springs.

Richfield Springs, July 26.—John Samuel Fox was found dead yesterday morning at his summer home on Canadago lake. He had a severe illness last fall but had partially recovered and was in his customary health last evening. Doctors who were called today ascribed death due to a heart ailment.

Mr. Fox was born in Sprout Brooks, 72 years ago, and in 1870 he married Miss Amanda Furman. Their early married life was spent at Sharon Springs, where Mr. Fox was ticket agent for a number of years. They removed to this valley about 25 years ago. The deceased for many years traveled for different shoe companies. During the last year he had traveled for the Lench Shoe company of Rochester. For several years he owned a shoe store in this village.

About 18 years ago he became owner and proprietor of Canadago park, the firm name being John S. Fox & Son.

His wife died in September, 1914. He leaves three children, Mrs. William W. West of this village, Mrs. George C. Steele of Herkimer and son, Fred F. Fox of this village and a grandson, Frederick Martin Fox of Richfield Springs, and two brothers, Charles D. and George of Sprout Brooks. The funeral will be held in the First Presbyterian church at 2 o'clock, standard time, Thursday afternoon. The interment will be in Fort Plain. Mr. Fox was a genial, hospitable man, who was esteemed by all who knew him and his death will be deeply mourned.

Mrs. R. D. Baird, who has been spending the winter in Rockford, Ill., has arrived in the city and opened her residence on Church street for the summer. Mrs. Baird was accompanied to Oneonta by her brother, Azro C. Tallmadge, and Mrs. Tallmadge of Schenectady, who are her guests at the Church street residence.

Koury Protests Innocence.

Sadie Koury still insists that he did not disturb the peace when he indulged in a fist fight with Fortunatus Kattensik following the Oneonta-Stamford baseball game on July 20 and has demanded a jury trial which has been set for August 8 at 9 a. m. Kattensik rather thinks that his conduct did break the law and accordingly he pleaded guilty in city court yesterday morning and was fined $5 by Judge Huntington. The men were arrested following the encounter, which had as its origin a dispute concerning a bet, and when arraigned the following morning pleaded not guilty and secured adjournment of their cases until yesterday morning.

FORMER ONEONTA RESIDENT.

C. E. Young, First Landlord of The Oneonta, Now a Guest There.

C. E. Young, who conducted the Oneonta hotel when it was first opened and who is well remembered here, is with Mrs. Young and son, Charles, stopping at The Oneonta for a couple of days while making an extended motor trip through New York and the New England states and thence to Montreal and Quebec.

Mr. Young is now proprietor of The Masson, at St. Augustine, Florida, which is described as the "Newest Hotel in the Ancient City," a building of fireproof construction and 100 rooms and 60 private baths. He is evidently prospering in the new location and is an active citizen of the city, a director of one of its banks and an enthusiastic Rotarian and not unlikely will remain in the city today to attend the luncheon of the Oneonta Rotary club.

Mr. Young has vivid recollections of his experiences in opening the Oneonta. The building was far from complete when he arrived and as the annual fair opened the following week he had to do some hustling to get ready to care for guests during the week. In fact within two hours after his arrival he had food ready to serve the help engaged and before night there were mattresses in the rooms and while some were spread upon the floors for the want of bedsteads, guests registering were cared for that night and during the week that followed.

Mr. Young will, before leaving central New York, go to Richfield Springs where he formerly conducted the Earlinton. In fact, he came to Oneonta from the Earlinton. He is pleased with the evidences of growth and prosperity he sees in the city and remembers with pleasure his associations with Oneonta business men and life in this city.

STATE C. E. PRESIDENT.

Adon H. Brownell Chosen Head of Pennsylvania Society.

Adon H. Brownell, of Pittsburgh, Pa., a son of Dr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Brownell of this city, was at a recent meeting of the Pennsylvania State Christian Endeavor union, elected president. Mr. Brownell, while active and energetic in business matters, has found time to become active in Christian Endeavor work and this recognition of his devotion is merited. News of his election is gratifying to his many friends in this city.

"JACK AND MARILYNN"

Los Angeles, Calif., July 26.—The date of the wedding of Marilynn Miller of the stage to Jack Pickford of the screen, has been advanced from August 1 to July 30.

The announcement was made by Jack's mother, Mrs. Charlotte Pickford, also mother of Mary Pickford, the wife of Douglas Fairbanks.

Miss Miller arrived here yesterday and she and her fiancé were discussing their plans for being married August 1, when Mrs. Pickford interrupted: "No, they'll be married next Sunday—at 7 o'clock Sunday night—so there will be no interruptions in the picnic work."

The wedding will be at Doug's and Mary's home in Beverly Hills.

"All right," said Jack and Marilynn.

An Interesting Event.

One of the most enjoyable of the annual Division street dances, which have been held in previous years, took place at the home of Miss Alice Stinson on Tuesday evening. At 6 o'clock the neighbors on the street assembled on the lawn of the hostess, where the tables were spread with eatables from the first course to the fifth. Following the delicious supper, a reading was given by Mrs. Gordon Gilbert and another by Miss Marion Dadds. Miss Stinson delighted the guests with two musical numbers, both being rendered on an elbow melodian, much over 100 years old. Mrs. Walter Mable, who chairman of the picnic, presided over a short business session, which consisted of the election of a president and the naming of committees for the coming year. A unanimous vote of thanks was extended to all past committees and to the hostess. Two guests were present this year, Mrs. Adella Hine of Walton and Mrs. Anna McNelly.

A few years since the annual picnic of Division street was started and each year the affair has proved more delightful, bringing each neighbor in closer friendship with the other and cementing ties which are not broken by trifling neighborhood misunderstandings.

This road receives federal aid and is the only missing link between Bloomville and Kingston.

PARROT TELLS ON POACHERS

Bird's Squawking and Violent Language Leads to Discovery of Evidence of Crime.

POLLY'S MORALS IN SAD STATE

Waterfront Line of Cussing in the Woods Leads Policeman to Investigate—Poachers Snare Thousands of Blackbirds.

New York.—Patrolman Daniel Burke of the Bronx motorcycle squad, combing paths that traverse the Bronx park hills for bird limers, whose activities in the woods of that section were first reported more than a month ago, discovered evidence of their activities in a patch of timber. Burke found the limbs of a dozen or more trees smeared with the bird lime. The poachers are said to have snared thousands of blackbirds.

Burke's discovery was made in a curious way. A red-headed Mexican parrot, owned by Mrs. Margaret Finsted, who lives at 446 Riverside avenue, escaped from its perch on the Finsted porch and disappeared in the forest. The parrot was sought until after dark by Theodore Finsted, son of its owner, and nearly all the members of his school class, without avail, though young Finsted reported he had heard the bird squawking.

Shrieks of Anguish.

Patrolman Burke on a motorcycle cruising through dense timber in search for the band said to be snaring birds, was attracted by shrieks of apparent anguish about 100 feet from the path he was traversing. He shouted several times in hope that an answering voice would give him the location of the trouble, but received no response and was about to resume his way when there proceeded from the woods a volley of oaths, intermingled with screams such as might have been uttered by a woman in distress. The oaths, Burke said, were delivered in a hoarse voice—apparently that of a man enraged.

Plunging into the undergrowth with drawn revolver, Burke made his way in the direction of the sounds, calling at intervals, but again finding no response, until when in the densest part of the thicket he was startled by a series of raucous screams coming from directly overhead.

"Police! Police! There's hell to pay—hell to pay—hell, hell!" howled the voice from a heavily foliaged oak. "I know you, Mike Sweeney," pursued the invisible one, repeating the latter remark several times.

Parrot Glued Fast.

Patrolman Burke ordered the supposed man in the tree to "come down of that," but was met, he says, with a volley of abuse. He recognized some of the oaths used as waterfront talk, he says. While this torrent of bad language was proceeding Burke caught sight of its author. Mrs. Finsted's parrot was flapping its wings as it cursed, in a vain effort to break away from a limed limb upon which its feet were firmly glued.

When the parrot was returned to Mrs. Finsted with a suggestion that an effort be made to improve its morals, she said the bird was formerly owned by a waterfront saloonkeeper at Mariner's Harbor, S. I., and was purchased by her son, then in the United States navy, when the prohibition law forced its former owner out of business.

GET GEMS BY PHONE RUSE

London Thieves Get Most of Lady Yoxall's Jewelry by Calling Maid Away by Decey Message.

London.—Lady Yoxall, the wife of Sir James Yoxall, has been robbed of most of her personal jewelry by a clever ruse.

Lady Yoxall went to Richmond police court to give evidence in another case, leaving one of the two maids in the house with strict instructions not to leave it.

Soon after she had left the telephone rang and a man's voice asked if Sir James Yoxall had gone to town and if the other maid was in. On learning that the maid was alone the voice said she was wanted at the court to give evidence. The maid said that her orders were not to leave, and the voice replied: "Hold the line." There was a short pause and then the voice said sharply: "You must leave everything and come at once." The maid thereupon went straight to the court, only to learn that the message was a decoy, and upon Lady Yoxall hurrying home she found the whole house had been ransacked.

"It must have been some one who knew my movements," she said. "So far I have not ascertained how much was taken. Two men were seen loitering about the road, and one of them forced the front door while the other evidently kept watch."

Deer Join Farm Cattle.

Marion Center, Pa.—The deer in this part of the state have little or no fear of human beings and frequently large herds approach quite closely to campers. Some days ago, while Horace Menner, of near this place, was milking a buck and a doe came up and joined the herd of cattle. While the milker moved among the cows the deer remained and did not leave until a dog appeared on the scene.

You Lose Either Way.

Don't argue with a woman. If you convince her that she is wrong she will think you are contemptible for being right.

All Egotists.

Milk Prices Increased One Cent Per Quart for August

Producers' milk prices for August will be practically one cent a quart higher than those prevailing for July, according to the recommendation of the board of directors of the Dairymen's League Co-operative association, Inc., at their meeting in New York city, July 19 and 20.

Prices recommended for August milk are as follows:

Class 1—Milk used for fluid consumption, $2.69.

Class 2—Milk used chiefly for the manufacture of cream and ice cream, $2.00.

Class 3 is sub-divided into two sub-divisions: 3A milk used chiefly for the manufacturing of canned milk, price to be determined by the market quotation of butter for August, plus a differential of 40 cents a hundred pounds; Class 3B, milk to be manufactured chiefly into the form of fancy hard cheese, price to be determined on the market quotations of butter plus an increased differential of 30 cents per hundred pounds.

Class 4—Milk used in the manufacture of butter and American cheese, price to be determined by market quotations for August.

These prices represent an increase all the way along the line and are welcome news to farmers, as the former prices were below cost of production. The June price for Class 1 milk, testing three per cent., at the 201-210 mile zone, $1.75. The July price for the same class was $2.22 and the price for August, as recommended by the league means another one cent per quart raise, or $2.69.

BENNY LEONARD DEFENDS TITLE IN FIGHT TONIGHT

Fight Fans All Worked Up Over Match in Which Lew Tendler Will Attempt to Wrest Lightweight Crown

New York, July 26.—Not since the Dempsey-Carpenter fight a year ago has the public been so worked up over a boxing match as it appears to be over the encounter tomorrow night in Jersey City between Champion Benny Leonard of New York and Challenger Lew Tendler of Philadelphia, for the world's lightweight title.

Hardly since Leonard took the title from the Englishman, Freddie Welsh, at the old Manhattan Casino here five years ago, has there been so much pre-fight discussion over a lightweight contest, though in the intervening time Benny has met every contender who asked for a chance.

But with almost everyone except the champion himself, Tendler is acknowledged the most dangerous opponent Leonard has hazarded his crown with since ascending the throne. To newspapermen at his training camp at Budd Lake, N. J.,

Leonard has belittled Tendler, christened him a "dub," and classified him as a "second rater."

Leonard has trained hard and carefully, which Tendler cites as ample refutation of the champion's utterances.

No lightweight contest that has been held in this section in the last twenty years has created more interest and more fight talk than this battle between Leonard and Tendler. All contemporaneous sports, including baseball, have been tossed temporarily into the dim shadows. A hot pennant fight is going on in the National and American leagues, but the Yankees and Giants have been forgotten in the frenzied discussion of the relative punching power of the two leading lightweights. Baseball fans are now fight fans, and they will remain in that state until Leonard either reaches a super height in the fistie firmament or falls under the body drives of the Philadelphia challenger.

Nothing else can achieve any considerable importance until this great question is settled. The plot leading up to tomorrow night's climax has been simmering and sputtering for three years and the public has been working up to a pitch that rivals the suspense that was felt in the last few days preceding Dempsey's meeting with Carpenter. Late advice from both training camps told the world that Leonard and Tendler are ready for each other. They are no more ready for each other than the public is for them.
